

Policy. 8

TRAINING POLICY STATEMENT

THE POSITRON GROUP is committed to the development and education of its employees, through integrity in their business dealings and, success and prosperity in the maintenance and construction to Australian industry.

This policy confirms that THE POSITRON GROUP recognises that employee education and development is essential for the fulfilment of their primary objectives.

The Chief Executive Officer of THE POSITRON GROUP is committed to the intent of THE POSITRON GROUP Training Policy and as such:

- We accept and demonstrate our obligations through fostering and facilitating our company's future towards being an industry leader in the provision of maintenance and construction to Australian industry.
- We provide the practical resources, funding and personnel necessary to educate and develop our human resources.
- We give the management of THE POSITRON GROUP the mandate to embrace their responsibilities for ensuring that instruction, training and assessment of our employees are presented in the most effective manner.
- We will comply with statutory legislation, standards, codes of practice, guidance notes and Company procedures as the accepted normal practice of our company.

JEFF HOGAN
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

DATE: May 2006